Senator Daniel to Close at Fredericksburg and Governor Montague in Charlotte. Mr. Swanson Winds Up at Danville.

The Democratic State campaign has taken on new life since the appearance of Senator Thomas S. Martin at head quarters, and the senator will personally next Tuesday. Senator Martin was in close touch with the situation all during the day, and remained in his privat room at headquarters up to a late hour ing engagements cancelled, and will not leave the storm center here until the battle is over, when he will go to his home in Scottsville to cast his ballot for the nominees of his party.

Senator Martin is confident of a splendid victory next Tuesday, and when seen at headquarters last night, he cheerfully gave a Times-Dispatch man the reasons for the faith that is in him.

ORANGE, VA., Oct. 31.—To-day uctant consent of his attorneys and the day of all days in Orange, when all roads seem to lead hither, the occasior being the reunion of Confederate Vet erans of the countles of Orange, Cul peper, Madison, Greene, Spotsylvania Fairfax and Albemarle.

The town was profusely decorated with flags by the hundred and all kinds of bunting, and there was an ample free feast for all at the reunion grounds which was enjoyed by thousands, including the old veterans.

The exercises began by Judge J. Morton, of Orange, calling the vast as semblage to order, and who named Judge Daniel A. Grimsley, of Culpeper, to introduce Senator John W. Daniel as the orator of the day, and as he appeared the enthusiasm of the audience rose to the highest pitch.

Daniel Speaks.

Senator Daniel spoke with that eloquence with which his orations are al ways marked. He said the soldiers en suged in the war on the northern side were in number two millions, two hun dred thousand, and on the Southern side only six hundred thousand.

The Senator spoke in the most catho-lic way of our new reunited country, par-ticularly praising President Roosevelt for his recent patriotic speeches on his south-

Little credence is placed by Superintendent of Detectives McQualde in the report that members of the Shepherd King Company know much more concerning Miss Geary's fate than they have told. Kimeo, Wright Lorimer's Japanese valet, and Stage Director Sam Forrest, both close friends of Nathan's, have been particularly frank in the statements they have made to the detectives, and the athorities are satisfied that the truth has been told. Nathan's despondency since his arrest is regarded as important by the police officials and they are concentrating their efforts to learn just what caused it and also to ascertain Miss Geary's physical condition when she was last seen in the company of the prisoner, that they may determine whether his connection with the case extends beyond the mere fact of giving her medical assistance. his recent patriotic speeches on his south-orn tour. When the orator referred to the private soldier in the southern ranks being really greater than commander and all, and when he made both Lee and Jackson the most wonderful generals of either ancient or modern times, shouts of applause rent the air.

After the conclusion of the Senator's speech the crowd was invited to dinner which was served on the grounds, and the old Virginia hams, chicken and "etcetery," as David Haram would say, was handed out in such abundance that even the most hungry cried, hold, enough. The crowd then adjourned to the town where the Marine Band gave a concert till old Sol warned the people far from home that it was time to, like the Ploughman in Grey's Elegy "Homeward wend their weary way," and leave Orange with the recollection of a most pleasant day spent with the boys of old, whom each departing years finds some one, answering the last roll call. The crowd was estimated at 5,000.

To-night there is a grand ball in the opera house and many of the old "vets" will attend.

Beautiful Banners.

Beautiful Banners.

Among banners which attracted attentio particularly were those of Gordons-ville and Dabney H. Maury Camps of Confederate Veterans. The Marine Band from Washington made the music. Everybody was good matured, and everybody had a good time, and went away fully impressed with the idea that Orange had the most gala day in its history.
